

TRAINING OUTLINE

This course aims to provide you with knowledge and skills for bowel management to aid manage fecal incontinence or constipation. Participants will be provided with an overview of bowel management in different healthcare settings and infection control in such cases. This is a non-accredited training.

TOPICS

- ✓ Importance of Bowel Management
- ✓ Factors affecting abnormal bowel movement
- ✓ Quick assessment of a normal bowel movement
- ✓ Bowel Management on Hospital setting
- ✓ Bowel management of Residential Age Care Facility (RACF)
- ✓ Bowel Management Home setting
- ✓ Infection Control
- ✓ What is a Bristol Stool chart?
- ✓ Overflow vs Diarrhea
- ✓ Effect of proper Bowel Management
- ✓ Effect of unmanaged Bowel Management
- ✓ Alternative way other than medication

TARGET AUDIENCE

Disability workers, Aged care workers, childcare workers, anyone who may be required to assist clients with bowel incontinence or anyone who is interested to learn more about bowel management.

